Note Submitted to Secretary

Sub: Seeking permission to conduct Linguaskill Orientation- reg.

We are introducing Linguaskill instead of BEC, since the base of these syllabi is a novel pattern for our students. It is planned to invite Cambridge Presenter from Cambridge Assessment English - a part of Cambridge University, UK to render activity based seminar for two consecutive days (day 1 for first year students and day 2 for interested students from II, III and final year) which will provide students an additional learning and an orientation to Linguaskill exams. This seminar is a pre-requisite for Linguaskill exam which will be scheduled at the end of first semester or beginning of the second semester. Therefore, the following schedule is chalked out:

S. No.	Date	Stream	Class	Class Strength	Total Students	Timing & Date	Venue
1	14.02.23	Core	Mech A&B, Auto & Civil	42+44+31+27	144	09:30 - 11:00 am	EEE Seminar Hall
2		Circuit & IT	ECE A & B, CYS	60+61+57	178	11:30 - 01:00 pm
3			EEE A & B, AIML	54+52+60	166	02:00 - 03:30 pm
4	15.02.23	Circuit & IT	CSE A&B + Interested students (II & III MCET)	61+60+50	171	09:30 - 11:00 am
5			IT A & B + Interested students (II & III MCET)	63+62+40	165	11:30 - 01:00 pm
6		IT	AI&DS A&B+ Interested students (II & III MCET)	60+58+40	158	02:00 - 03:30 pm
Total no. of students					982

We seek your kind permission to conduct the above seminar on 14.02.23 & 15.02.23.

Proposal for a Guest Lecture Programme to Promote English Language Competency for Employability

Note Submitted for approval:

English, a global language, is now required for people to communicate effectively in the contemporary environment. English is often referred to as the major language of communication, and success in the workplace depends on one's ability to communicate in it. The majority of commercial agreements, transactions, and even product descriptions are written in English. It is absolutely essential for the students to study English if he or she wants to keep up with the current scenario and comprehend business jargon used around the globe.

The purpose of this proposal is to organize a Guest Lecture program on "English for Employability" through the Department of Science & Humanities (English) in collaboration with the Rostrum Club on 12 June 2023. With different viewpoints and thoughts on the value of learning English in the modern period, this programme will reinforce students' interests and efforts. In this regard, Poster presentation competition is organized through the Rostrum Club on the topic "English for Employability" to the B.E./B.Tech students on 10 June 2023 at C203. Winners of this event will be receiving the prizes on 12 June 2023.

Program Objective:

The key objective of this programme is to provide opportunity for the students to realize that one of the most important requirements for acquiring a job is the ability to communicate effectively in English.

Program Details:

A Guest Lecture program on "English for Employability" is planned on 12 June 2023 for the deputed students (100 participants) from I B.E./B.Tech in the afternoon session between 2.00 p.m. and 4.30 p.m.

Guest Speaker:

Dr.B.Arokia Lawrence Vijay,
Head, Department of Languages and Communication
Kumaraguru College of Technology, Coimbatore

Report on a Guest Lecture Programme on English for Employability
2023-24

A Guest Lecture program on “English for Employability” has been organized through the Department of Science & Humanities (English) and Rostrum Club on 12 JUNE 2023 at C-Block Electrical Seminar Hall, MCET between 2.00 p.m. and 4.30 p.m. for the deputed students (133 participants) from I B.E./B.Tech programs.

Dr.B.Arokia Lawrence Vijay, Head, Department of Languages and Communication, Kumaraguru College of Technology, Coimbatore has acted as the resource person. The key objective of this programme is to provide opportunity for the students to realize that one of the most important requirements for acquiring a job is the ability to communicate effectively in English.

Dr.B.Arokia Lawrence Vijay, has addressed the students that English is utilised all throughout the world in corporate and professional settings in addition to commonplace circumstances. Learning English is a crucial professional move in addition to being enjoyable and engaging. English language proficiency is essential for maintaining one's employability.

He has lectured on the significance of English language that English is the language that naturally brings people together because our workforce is multi-cultural and multilingual. Whether at internal or external meetings, during presentations, or during training, this is the language of official communication.

He has interacted with the students effectively and has raised various questions to retain the students' attention throughout the session. Through his power point presentation he has stimulated the curiosity of the learners. With different viewpoints and thoughts on the value of learning English in the modern period, this programme has exactly reinforced the students' interests and efforts.

In this regard, a Poster presentation competition has been organized through Rostrum Club on the topic “English for Employability” for the B.E. and B.Tech. students on 10 June 2023 at C203. Winners of this event as well as the winners of the Picture Perception Competition (30 May 2023) have received their prizes on 12 June 2023 from the resource person.

The programme received great response from the students, who also have expressed a wish to participate in similar events in the future.
